Deputy Director

Dear Bob:

It isn't often than an editor manages to overcome the stress and strains of daily trivia. But dinner last night was one of those occasions. The level of conversation sometimes forced the exercise of intellectual brain cells that had atrophied since graduate school. My God, I might have even learned something. How unusual for someone of my age, demeanor and occupation.

Anyway, I loved your seminar, and if the agency ever decides to go into the university business, please send me an application blank. I'd like to start raising my SAT's so I can qualify for early admission.

Best regards,

Mel Elfin
